In regard to a missing Rifle from the Armony fthrs Institution

Mr. Beatty - an employe on being inquired of by me stated that he took no rifle away from here at any time - that he did carry a 16 Shooker rifle down to the Adams Express room

Amos Sayre another employe says that on the day of the expiration of Col Snowden's term of office (July 30. last) he assisted Mr. Beatty in gathering up the personal articles contained in ~~the~~ about the Office of the Sup't of the Mint. and in carrying a portion of them to the R.R. Station Board & M<sup>rs</sup> Sts so that he & Beatty could convey them to the Havensford residence of Col. Snowden that Beatty in his business ~~did~~ (Sayre's) did take a rifle similar to those in the armory out of the closet in said office & carried it without being wrapped out the front door & over to the station where I left him he taking the car ~~out~~ with the property

In regard to a missing Rifle from the Armory of this Institution.

Gno. Beatty – An employee on being inquired of by me stated that he took no rifle away from here at any time – that he did carry a 16 shooter rifle down to the Adams Express room.

Amos Sayre another employee says that on the day of the expiration of Col. Snowden's term of office (June 30 last) he assisted Gno. Beatty in gathering up the personal articles explained in or about the Office of the Supt. of the Mint and in carrying a portion of them to the R.R. Station's Broad & M at Sts. So that he (Beatty) could carry them to the Haverford residence of Col. Snowden that Beatty in his business (Sayre's) did take a rifle similar to those in the armory out of the closet in said Office & carried it without being wrapped out the front door & over to the station where I left him he taking the card with the property.
